SHOW DESCRIPTION

Chris Blaze is now known worldwide as "The fire ninja" of all ninjas.

Many call him the new age "street Fighter" as he moves and looks like he just came straight out of the arcade game ready to perform and show off his skills.

Over a +10 year career Chris has learnt the art of fire in a very usual way, It is known throughout the world that "if you play with fire you get burnt" but for this dare devil it is very far from the truth with his intolerance to burning and lack of fear Chris definitely takes this show to new highs and explosive boundaries.

Throughout the show you will see things you never thought possible like:

- Fire being transferred directly off the mouth from one torch to the other,
- A fire ball that is manipulated off a long rope (Full street fighter style)
- A dragon staff that has more fire on it than any other prop/equipment known to mankind
- For the finale a big explosion is made by a prop most fire performers haven't even heard of called a chain staff (Big WOW Factor)

Over the years Chris Blaze has successfully changed into a complete street style act by interacting with the audience by asking a small child on stage to teach him a trick and once he accomplishes it Chris Blaze then send out a message to all the children watching that with a bit of training and hard work you can accomplish anything just have to believe in yourself and find what you love in this world, you only get 1 life.

This dynamic master-piece of fire manipulation and ninja style acrobatics is just the show you have been looking for as he is only one of a handful of people in the world that can deliver most of the tricks performed.

So come down watch the amazing show as you may never get the chance again.

The show with it's great effects is something that needs to be seen for sure!

NO FIRE USED AT ANY POINT WITH THE CHILDREN, VERY SAFE !!!!!

(PLEASE BE ASSURED THAT EVERYTHING PERFORMED IN THIS SHOW CAN NOT AND WILL NOT PUT ANY AUDIENCE MEMBER IN DANGER OR HARMS WAY AT ANYTIME)
